LIBRARY CORNER — Where did the year go? It is bittersweet, as we advance our students to another level and send some amazing 8th graders into high schools. It is God's design to grow and live His purpose to continue to read not only His true word but to continue to read about all He has created in this world. I try to challenge my students to be curious, yet discerning, about what they read and encourage them to live for Jesus. Parents, thank you for your support, please continue to take the time to read with and to your student. They all look to you for leading. A visit to your local library this summer will be a treat for all the students. In the meantime, I am collecting all books and fines this week. If you have a concern, you can reach me at school. Mrs. Lawin
