MESSAGE NOTES

1. Did anyone invite friends over this evening to celebrate Pentecost?
2. More than 100,000 retailers sell approximately 7 billion greeting cards with over $7 billion in sales in the USA each year – but not a Pentecost card among them!
3. Pentecost is meant to be present, active, real time. It's when we, as Spirit-directed Christians, represent Jesus in the world, and we don't limit that to one day.
4. Is there something in your soul that is not at rest? Or has something sucked the life out of you?

Old, dry bones can live!

5. The disciples followed God's direction, got together in Jerusalem, and waited.

Soren Kierkegaard. "A man prayed, and at first he thought that prayer was talking. But he became more and more quiet until in the end he realized that prayer is listening."

6. Then the disciples were used powerfully. God is never so much impressed with our ability as he is with our availability.

7. Have you ever ordered a Pentecost cake?

Happy Pentecost!
